Primate will consecrate Armenian Khachkar at Canterbury Cathedral on Saturday 2nd March

In Britain, though weighed down itself with the suffering and hardships of the First World War, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Randall Davidson, championed the Armenian cause and brought this terrible event to international attention. In commemoration of the centenary of the Armenian Genocide, the Dean & Chapter of Canterbury have been offered a traditional Armenian Khachkar or stone cross in remembrance of those who died but also as a symbol for the promotion of peace through dialogue and as a visible agent for reconciliation.

The Khachkar has been carved in Canterbury by Vartan Moskofian, who is of Armenian descent, and John Meardon, the Cathedral's former Receiver General, from a block of imported Armenian tuff stone. It stands nearly 2 meters tall and will be positioned in the Memorial Garden of the Cathedral Precincts.

There will be a coach leaving from Ealing Broadway (27 Haven Green) 12:00 pm and return to London by 9:00 pm.

St Yeghiche Choir

St Yeghiche Armenian Church is looking for people of all ages to be members of the choir. If you would like to be in the choir and be uplifted by singing our beautiful "Sharagans" (hymns) just come to church on any Sunday and introduce yourself to our Choirmaster Mr Aris Nadirian or to any Member of the Parish Council.

Serving at the Alter:

One of the great things about our community at St Yeghiche Parish is the involvement of so many of our young people as alter servers. They not only help Mass to run smoothly but they help the whole community to focus on prayers and celebrate our faith. Being a server helps them to join actively in prayers and to grow in self-confidence. They gradually learn about the mass and take more responsibility. So if you'd like to be involved please contact our coordinator of Alter servers Archdeacon Sarkis or talk to Rev Fr Nshan or contact the parish office at 020 7373 8133 or write to info@styeghiche.org.uk.
